

Using their rights, everyone has to respect the rights of other children and adults.

The child has to be polite and respect the rules of behaviour.

Every child and parent must comply with the laws and respect the State and its symbols - flag, anthem and coat of arms.

The law is one for all, and everyone is equal in front of the law.

Everyone has to respect public order,
other people and State property.
Then all rights will be implemented.

Everyone has all the rights. No one can take away any of the other's rights.

WHERE TO LOOK FOR HELP

- ✓ In the case of a fire or another accident: dial 01 or 112
- ✓ If you need police assistance: 110
- ✓ To call the ambulance: 113
- ✓ Doctor's advice when the family doctor is not available:
66 016 001 (toll-free)
- ✓ In the case of an infringement of the rights of the child:
67 359 128 or 67 359 133 (Children's Rights Protection Inspectorate) OR contact the Orphan's Court
- ✓ Children and Youth Helpline: 116 111
- ✓ In the case of discrimination: 67 686 768 (Ombudsman's Office)
- ✓ Labour law violation: 67 186 523 (State Labour Inspection)

- ✓ On matters relating to child's education:
 - If you want to sign up a child in a kindergarten or a school - contact the kindergarten or school administration, on other issues - the group or class teachers
 - If there is a disagreement with a teacher – contact the kindergarten or school principal
 - If you have complaints about a kindergarten or a school – contact the municipal Department of Education

- ✓ The birth registration: in a Registry Office within one month after childbirth

- ✓ For residence declaration when a child is born or if you change the place of residence: contact the local municipality

- ✓ If you need social assistance: contact the municipal social workers

www.iic.lv

Follow us in Facebook.

Centre for Education Initiatives implements projects related to adult education, quality education and social integration all across the territory of Latvia.

Centre for Education Initiatives offers teachers professional development programs and a wide range of educational activities for different audiences:

- we develop and implement licensed teacher further- education programs;
- we organise seminars, conferences and other events for teachers, parents, municipality and NGO members, as well as other interested in people in all regions of Latvia;
- we do research in the area of education and integration;
- we provide expert consultations in the area of quality education and integration;
- we develop methodological and informative materials;
- we encourage people to get involved in various local and international projects.

